Under 12 Jaguars Season's Report - 2023-24

The Jaguars proved themselves a tough and resilient bunch over a challenging under-12s season in the Chiltern Junior Sevens League, division two. A mid-table finish was fine reward for a campaign in which the boys had to dig deep and they were rewarded in spring with a strong run of results, ending with three wins in a row, that carried them up the table.

Consistency was always going to be difficult to achieve with Hitchin Boys' School sport calling on the lads for rugby, hockey and cricket. But they found their groove and did themselves proud across all 27 matches. The final seven games showed the boys' true potential, with four wins making them the fourth 'hottest' form team in the division. The Jags ended seventh out of 12, with the table showing P22 W8 D2 L12 GD -17 PTS 26.

There were strong performances across the whole squad ... all deserve a mention.

George Gelling: a huge season of development for our ever-reliable goalie. Some brilliant performances and never let his head go down when the going got tough. Should be really proud
Tom Entwistle: fantastic between the sticks – a really strong and classy keeper. Just a shame he's just as good at rugby, hockey and in central defence as well. Well done Tom – you can do it all.

Wilf Bean: one of the signings of the summer. Brilliant at right back, with a penchant for getting forward, and also in midfield. Reliable, combative and with a lovely pass and shot. Top effort Wilf.

Rudy Alexander-Scott: Moore, Beckenbauer, Baresi, Rudy Alexander-Scott... The future of ball-playing central defenders is safe when Rudy's on the field. Takes huge responsibility for the team week in, week out.

Luca Wilson: Fast and fearsome, Luca made his presence felt for the Jags when not terrorising the rugby teams of North Herts. Tough in the tackle and has pace to burn. His screamer from 30 yards wasn't half bad either.

Frank Stout: Another multi-talented lad who is in demand across sports, Frank had some great games for the Jags. Mainly as a flying winger, but also up front and at the back! Always 100 per cent and a quality operator.

Sol Burgess: Like Liam Brady in his pomp, Sol's left foot can make the ball talk, but he is also gets stuck in and brings plenty of tenacity in the tackle. From the left or in the middle, Sol can take the game by the scruff.

Mo Patel: Another class act ... equally happy to play out from the back or making things tick over in the middle of the park, Mo's presence sets a platform to play. Thanks for a terrific season Mo... fancy another one?

Jacob Mayes: Never gives less than 100 per cent, Jacob is a quality player to rely upon in all situations and positions. Always plays with the right attitude and encourages others ... well done Jacob for a great season.

Ollie Weatherall-Morris: Ollie's maiden campaign brought impressive displays all over the park. A reluctant but effective full back, a midfielder who enjoys the ball at his feet, or a goal-hungry poacher ... you decide!

George Henry: Joint top scorer, mainly from the left, George is a real threat when he's feeling confident and running at his full back and is always calm and composed in front of goal. Well done George.

George Major: An excellent campaign from George, who put in a hell of a shift leading the line, and often when playing one up top. A tough role, and one in which he was always selfless and knitted the play together.

Sam Orviss-Hammond: A passer, not a dribbler and the team's better for it. Sam's first instinct when he gets the ball is to move it on and with those pass-and-move instincts he keeps the team ticking. Takes a mean penalty.

Dylan Thompson: A classy player with excellent vision and goalscoring instincts. Capable of the killer through-ball or curling it in the top corner. Strong over the ball and plays with his head up. Joint top scorer.

Noah Eaton: A fantastic first season from Noah, who has had some important games for the Jags. His energy, enthusiasm and commitment always gives the team impetus and his attitude is spot on. Gets stuck in.

Lastly a huge thanks to everyone who helped us ... Steve Smith and Phil Toyer of course, to Jon Entwistle for the videos, to Ben Hammond, Martin Stout, Pete Gelling for running the line, Colin Weatherall-Morris for refereeing, and to all those who put stuff out and take it in again, get the boys where they need to be on time and are clearly the nicest, most supportive gang in the league. Let's do it again.
